

Cancellation Policy

I, the undersigned, agree that in the event of severe weather, insufficient registration, act of god or other decision made by the organizing committee of the Outdoor Collective, the Outdoor Collective, or parts thereof, may be modified or cancelled. In the case that such a modification or cancellation should occur, I agree to the following conditions.

- 1) Should I choose to cancel my registration to the event of my own volition, prior to the 1st of April, 2020, the Outdoor Collective will refund my deposit in full for the value of the event.
- 2) Should I choose to cancel my registration to the event, of my own volition, after the 1st of April, 2020, The Outdoor Collective will refund my deposit for the event, minus 50%, withheld as a cancellation fee.
- 3) Should the organizers of the Outdoor Collective choose to modify the content of the event or the recertification course offered AFTER the 1st of April, 2020, and I choose to cancel my registration for the event, the Outdoor Collective will refund my deposit in full for the value of the event.
- 4) Should the event be canceled for any reason, the Outdoor Collective will refund my deposit in full for the value of the event.

Effective as of March 2, 2020
